Temporary Library Cataloguing Assistant

St Antony's Priory seeks a temporary library assistant to help re-catalogue the library.

The role will involve cataloguing and shelving throughout the collection. Due to the specialist nature of the library, subject-specific knowledge of theological disciplines will be indispensable.

Full training on use of the catalogue system will be given.

This post would typically suit a graduate student, and is offered for 12 hrs per week for an initial contract term of six months, with remuneration at the rate of £12.60 p/h.

To apply for this position, please send your CV and covering letter to:
